

Job Title: Primary Teacher

Introduction:

Isamilo International School in Mwanza, Tanzania, is owned by the Anglican Church of Tanzania under the auspices of the Diocese of Victoria Nyanza. Established in 1956, the school initially served the children of expatriates and missionaries working in the area, particularly those in the medical and mining sectors, as well as families from the local Tanzanian community. Since its inception, the school has grown significantly, transitioning from a small institution with limited facilities to a well-resourced school offering an international curriculum.
